portway has announced the signing of four new ground handling contracts - with Aer Lingus, Volareweb, transavia.com and Swissport. Aer Lingus will receive ground handling services on the route between Funchal and Dublin, while Volareweb will be handled at Porto airport. transavia.com is set to be handled at both Porto and Funchal, whereas Swissport (cargo) will be depending on the services of portway at Lisbon and Porto airports.

The handling company has also renewed a further three contracts, with Hello Airways, Sterling Airlines and TAAG.
